DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1 – 27 are presented for examination.
2. Claims 1 – 26 are allowed.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with attorney Mr. Michael G. Fletcher [reg.# 32777] on November 23, 2004 to avoid restriction requirement.

The application has been amended as follows:

4. Please cancel the claim 27.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 1, and 10, are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the references, either alone or in combination, discloses or renders obvious a detection device to produce an output signal having one of at least three voltage levels corresponds to at least three respective selectable CAS latencies and a single pin on memory device is configured to receive the output signal to set the CAS latency of respective memory device correlative to the voltage levels of output signal.

Art Unit: 2116

Independent claim 19 is allowable over the prior art of record because none of the references, either alone or in combination, discloses or renders obvious selecting CAS latencies by sending a drive signal having one of at least three voltage levels to a pin on memory device and assigning one of at least three latencies dependent upon to the voltage levels of drive signal.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
